

Liverpool Philharmonic Music Room Visual Guide

Dementia Friendly, Tuesday 6th
October

Welcome to the Music Room at Liverpool Philharmonic Hall

- We are a concert hall that has a wide range of music, comedy, film and family events.
- This is what the building looks like from the outside at the front.
- This is the main entrance of Liverpool Philharmonic Hall, on Hope Street.

The Music Room

- At the back of the building, on Sugnall Street, is the Music Room.
- This is where the concert will be.
- This door is opened from the inside by one of our stewards.

- When you enter thorough the door you will mee one of our Stewards.
- They might ask you for your name so they can check your ticket.

Inside The Music Room

- When you are inside you will first see the bar.
- Then you will go into the main space of the Music Room.
- There will be a small stage, some coloured lights and a screen. There will also be chairs for you to sit on.
- You might see the ensemble or some Liverpool Philharmonic staff getting ready to start.

Toilets

- There are accessible toilets behind the bar area.
- You can use the toilets at any point before, during or after the concert.

The Concert

- When everyone is ready, the presenter will welcome everyone to the concert and will make some announcements.
- The musicians might play their instruments before the concert so they can warm up.
- The concert will start, and you can enjoy the music.
- Some of the audience might clap and you can join in if you want.

Take A Break

- If you feel that you need to take some time out, we do have lots of quiet spaces, including in the Music Room Bar Area.
- Let a steward know that you would like to leave, and they can take you to this space. You can return to the main space when you feel ready.
- If you would like to bring ear defenders, or small, quiet sensory items you are welcome to. We don't have any at Liverpool Philharmonic Hall that you can use.

After The Concert

- At the end of the concert, we will go back into the Music Room bar area, and exit through the same door that you came in.
- There is no rush to leave, you can take your time.

We hope you enjoy your visit!
